Sinks

The sinks in Kefalonia are one of the many geological attractions of Kefalonia, located at a distance of about 2 km away from Argostoli, in the cape of Agios Theodoros. In early years, the power flow of the water was used to power mills but now they remain unused. The mills were constructed by the Englishman Stewens, who was the first person to observe this phenomenon.

Monasteries

There are two castles in Kefalonia—Assos Castle located to the north of Argostoli and St. George Castle on the coast. There are several churches in Kefalonia of which The Monastery and Church of Agios Gerassimos, The convent of Agios Andreas and The Monastery of Agrilion must be visited for their beautiful architecture.

Beaches
